TRADE NEGOTIATIONS

Committee on Finance: Committee met in closed session to further consider those issues relating the implementation of the Multilateral Trade Negotiations and took the following actions regarding the procedures for countervailing duty investigations:

(1) All petitions submitted to the administering agency would be "filed";

(2) Within 15 days after a petition is filed, the administering agency would determine whether a petition alleges the elements necessary for relief;

(3) Within 45 days after a petition is filed, the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) would determine whether there is reasonable indication that injury to a domestic industry by reason of subsidized imports exists;

(4) Within 75 days after a petition is filed, the authorities would make a preliminary determination whether there is a reasonable basis to believe that a subsidy exists;

(5) Within 75 days after a preliminary determination, the administering agency would make a final determination whether a subsidy exists; and

(6) Within 120 days after a preliminary determination, the ITC would make a final determination whether a domestic industry is being injured by reason of subsidized imports.

Committee also agreed to recommend that suspension of an investigation be permitted if the subsidizing government agrees to eliminate completely within 6 months the amount of the subsidy being investigated, or to cease exports of the subsidized product to the U.S.

A press release summarizing actions taken by the Committee today is available at the Committee office in 2227 Dirksen Office Building.

Committee will continue consideration of these matters on Thursday, March 15.

Bill Reported: One report was filed as follows: H.R. 2534, to provide for a temporary increase in the public debt limit, and for other purposes (H. Rept. 96–31). Page 4545

Calendar Wednesday: Agreed to dispense with Calendar Wednesday business of March 14. Page 4473

United States-Taiwan Relations: House completed all general debate and began reading for amendment on H.R. 2479, to help maintain peace, security, and stability in the Western Pacific and to promote continued extensive, close, and friendly relations between the people of the United States and the people on Taiwan; but came to no resolution thereon. Proceedings under the 5-minute rule will continue on Tuesday, March 13.

Agreed To:

An amendment that clarifies that the United States will maintain its capacity to resist any resort to force or other forms of coercion that would jeopardize the security of Taiwan;

An amendment that adds language to insure that Taiwan is included in the antiboycott provisions of the Export Administration Act (agreed to by a division vote of 37 ayes to 28 noes);

An amendment that clarifies that the President must inform Congress of any threat to the peace and stability of the Western Pacific area or any danger to United States interests arising from threats to the security of Taiwan;

An amendment, as amended by a substitute, that assures that the United States will make available to Taiwan conventional defense articles and services of modern technology; and

An amendment, as amended by a substitute, that requires determinations regarding sale of defense articles and services by the United States to Taiwan to be made without regard to the views of the People's Republic of China.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to broaden the Declaration of Principles governing United States policy toward Taiwan to include continued defensive and political relations with the people on Taiwan (rejected by a division vote of 34 ayes to 40 noes);

An amendment that sought to reaffirm the position taken in the Mutual Defense Treaty with Taiwan requiring the United States to act, in accordance with constitutional processes, to meet the danger of an armed attack against Taiwan (rejected by a recorded vote of 149 ayes to 221 noes, Roll No. 26);

An amendment that sought to require the President to consider the possibility of withdrawing diplomatic recognition of the People's Republic of China in the event of a threat to the security of Taiwan (rejected by a recorded vote of 169 ayes to 197 noes, Roll No. 27); and

An amendment that sought to maintain and conduct relations between the United States and Taiwan through the establishment of liaison offices rather than the entities proposed in the bill (rejected by a recorded vote of 172 ayes to 181 noes, Roll No. 28).

H. Res. 148, the rule under which the bill is being considered, was agreed to earlier by a voice vote.

House of Representatives

Chamber Action

Bills Introduced: 62 public bills, H.R. 2802–2863; 11 private bills, H.R. 2864–2874; and 10 resolutions, H.J. Res. 251–256, H. Con. Res. 72 and 73, and H. Res. 154 and 155 were introduced. Pages 4816–4818

United States-Taiwan Relations: By a yea-and-nay vote of 345 yeas to 55 nays with 2 voting "present", Roll No. 38, the House passed H.R. 2479, to help maintain peace, security, and stability in the Western Pacific and to promote continued extensive, close, and friendly relations between the people of the United States and the people on Taiwan.

Agreed to a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Foreign Affairs with instructions to report it back forthwith containing an amendment that adds language reaffirming the preservation of the human rights of the people of Taiwan as a commitment of the United States.

Agreed To:

An amendment that requires the President to make every effort to assure that the facilities used by Taiwan to conduct its affairs in the United States be at or near the consular establishments existing on December 31, 1978;

An amendment, as amended, that continues in force all multilateral conventions to which the United States and the Republic of China were contracting parties as of December 31, 1978;

An amendment, as amended by a substitute, that provides for congressional oversight of the implementation of the provisions of this legislation, the operation of the designated entity, the legal and technical aspects of United States-Taiwan relations, and United States policy concerning security and cooperation in East Asia; and

An amendment that prohibits availability of funds for the designated entity unless the funds are expressly authorized and appropriated to be made available to and used by the entity (agreed to by a recorded vote of 226 ayes to 174 noes, Roll No. 37, after having been previously rejected by a division vote of 58 ayes to 109 noes).

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to make employees of the designated entity employees of the United States (rejected by a recorded vote of 171 ayes to 239 noes, Roll No. 30);

An amendment that sought to expand the definition of Taiwan to include the islands of Quemoy and Matsu (rejected by a recorded vote of 146 ayes to 256 noes, Roll No. 31);

An amendment that sought to establish consular relations between the United States and Taiwan rather than maintaining relations through the entities proposed in the bill (rejected by a recorded vote of 179 ayes to 225 noes, Roll No. 32);

An amendment that sought to maintain relations of the United States Government with Taiwan through a quasi-governmental entity, "The United States Commission in Taiwan", rather than the nongovernmental entity proposed in the bill (rejected by a recorded vote of 182 ayes to 221 noes, Roll No. 35);

An amendment that sought to require approval of both Houses of Congress before the United States or the designated entity could give notice or intention to terminate any treaty or international agreement in force between the United States and the Republic of China on December 31, 1978 (rejected by a recorded vote of 141 ayes to 264 noes, Roll No. 36);

An amendment that sought to expand the definition of Taiwan to include the Government of the Republic of China; and

An amendment that sought to strike the requirement that the United States entity be "nongovernmental" (rejected by a division vote of 37 ayes to 106 noes).

Earlier, agreed to a motion to limit debate on remaining amendments to the bill (agreed to by a recorded vote of 204 ayes to 193 noes, Roll No. 33); and Rejected a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken (rejected by a recorded vote of 110 ayes to 295 noes, Roll No. 34).

The Clerk was authorized to correct section numbers, punctuation, and cross references, and to make such other necessary technical and conforming changes in the engrossment of the bill. Pages 4745–4778

Proceedings under the 5-minute rule will continue on Tuesday, April 10.

Pending when the Committee of the Whole rose was an amendment that seeks to remove the Peace Corps from ACTION and place it under the International Development Agency.

Agreed To:

An amendment, as amended (amendment to the amendment agreed to by a recorded vote of 193 ayes to 177 noes, Roll No. 82, after having been previously rejected by a division vote of 18 ayes to 18 noes), that prohibits economic assistance to Syria unless the President determines and reports to Congress that it is in the national interest of the United States;

An amendment that prohibits economic assistance to Mozambique, Angola, Zambia, or Tanzania unless the President determines and reports to Congress that assistance to any of these countries would further the foreign policy interests of the United States;

An amendment that urges the President to take steps to negotiate with other industrial nations to create a Peace Development Fund to underwrite the costs of implementing a Middle East peace;

A perfecting amendment that states it is the sense of Congress that economic assistance funds to the Middle East are designed to promote progress toward a comprehensive peace settlement and that Syria and Jordan, to continue receiving funds, should act in good faith to achieve progress toward a comprehensive peace settlement; and

A technical amendment.

Rejected:

An amendment, as amended, that sought to provide for a Southern Africa fair and open election program and to earmark $20 million that could be made available to the government of Rhodesia which is installed as a result of the election in April 1979 (rejected by a recorded vote of 180 ayes to 190 noes, Roll No. 85). Earlier, agreed to an amendment to this amendment that deleted language providing for the sending of impartial observers to observe elections in Southern Africa and that provided $20 million in aid to Rhodesia after the April 1979 election (agreed to by a recorded vote of 233 ayes to 146 noes, Roll No. 83); and agreed to an amendment that reinstated language permitting the President to appoint impartial observers to observe elections in Southern Africa and that earmarked $20 million which could be made available to Rhodesia (agreed to by a recorded vote of 191 ayes to 184 noes, Roll No. 84);

A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken; and

An amendment that sought to strike language establishing the Institute for Scientific and Technological Cooperation (rejected by a recorded vote of 136 ayes to 236 noes, Roll No. 86).

A point of order was sustained against language in the bill that removed the Peace Corps from ACTION. Pages 7746–7778

Referral: One Senate-passed bill was referred to the appropriate House committee. Page 7821

Adjournment: Adjourned at 6:35 p.m.

Res. 107, setting forth the congressional budget for the United States Government for fiscal year 1980 and revising the congressional budget for the United States Government for fiscal year 1979. Page 12060

Veterans' Health Care Programs: House insisted on its amendment to S. 7, to revise and improve certain health care programs of the Veterans' Administration; and agreed to a conference. Appointed as conferees: Representatives Roberts, Satterfield, Edwards of California, Montgomery, Daschle, Hammerschmidt, Heckler, and Wylie. Page 12060

Congressional Mailing Standards: The Speaker appointed the following Members as members of the House Commission on Congressional Mailing Standards: Representatives Udall (chairman), Charles H. Wilson of California, Solarz, Derwinski, Quillen, and Lott. Page 12060

SBA Programs: By a yea-and-nay vote of 398 yeas to 5 nays, Roll No. 163, the House passed H.R. 4011, to amend the Small Business Act and Small Business Investment Act of 1958.

On a demand for a separate vote, rejected an amendment that sought to reduce the interest rate on homeowners' disaster loans to 1 percent on the first $10,000 (rejected by a yea-and-nay vote of 174 yeas to 232 nays, Roll No. 162). Earlier, this amendment had been agreed to in the Committee of the Whole by a division vote of 24 ayes to 9 noes.

Agreed To:

An amendment that makes certain technical and conforming changes in the bill and that gives SBA the discretion to waive the $500,000 disaster loan limit if a business is a major source of employment in a disaster area and is no longer in substantial operation as a result of a disaster; and

An amendment that includes Asian Pacific Americans as a minority under the Minority Business Development Programs.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to limit grants for Small Business Development Centers to State governments or agencies thereof; to authorize use of qualified private vendors for services; to require each State SBDC to establish an advisory board; and to prohibit acceptance of any additional applications for the SBDC program until specifically authorized by the committees of jurisdicton (rejected by a recorded vote of 192 ayes to 216 noes, Roll No. 161); and

An amendment that sought to strike language relating to the White House Conference on Small Business, and substitute language requiring a final report of the Conference to the President and Congress within one year, and a report to Congress each of the three following years on the status and implementation of the findings and recommendations of the Conference (rejected by a division vote of 40 ayes to 48 noes).

Subsequently, this passage was vacated and S. 918, a similar Senate-passed bill, was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed. H.R. 90, a similar House bill, was also laid on the table.

House then insisted on its amendment to S. 918, and asked a conference. Appointed as conferees: Representatives Smith of Iowa, St Germain, Nolan, Ichord, Evans of Georgia, Barnard, Leach of Louisiana, Hall of Ohio, McDade, Carter, Quayle, and Conte; and Foley, Jones of Tennessee, Harkin, Huckaby, Glickman, Hance, Brown of California, Richmond, Wampler, Madigan, Kelly, and Coleman, as additional conferees solely for consideration of subsections (c), (d), and (e) of section 113 of the House amendment.

H. Res. 279, the rule under which the bill was considered, was agreed to earlier by a yea-and-nay vote of 380 yeas to 7 nays, Roll No. 160. Pages 12060–12097

Printing: House agreed to H. Res. 258, to provide for the printing of additional copies of the "Ethics Manual for Members and Employees of the U.S. House of Representatives."

Agreed to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute. Page 12098
